

Clinic and Experiential Opportunities Comparison Chart

Opportunity	Credit Hours	Semesters	Eligibility	Grading	How to Participate	Application Deadline	Prerequisites	Learn More
Access to Justice: Law Reform I	2 or 3	One semester	Must be a second-year or third-year student	Letter grade	Students get permission from the instructor prior to registering. Students who enroll in Access to Justice: Law Reform I must also enroll in Access to Justice: Law Reform II in the succeeding semester	Students must get permission from the instructor prior to registering for this course	NA	Students learn about the workings of the civil and criminal justice systems as they operate in Fulton and/or DeKalb County, focusing on the experience of low-income individuals. They will identify a specific access to justice problem and work in teams to research and produce a thorough description of the problem. Professor Lauren Lucas
Access to Justice: Law Reform II	2 or 3	One semester	Must be a second-year or third-year student	Letter grade	Students must get permission from the instructor prior to registering. Students who enroll in Access to Justice: Law Reform II must also enroll in Access to Justice: Law Reform I in the preceding semester	Students must get permission from the instructor prior to registering for this course	Access to Justice: Law Reform I	Students will engage in further research of the access to justice problem they have identified in Access to Justice: Law Reform I and propose a solution to the problem. They also will work to organize an event at which their proposals will be presented. Professor Lauren Lucas

Bankruptcy Assistance and Practice Program (BAPP)	3	One semester. A second semester is possible with approval of the professor.	Successful completion of all first-year courses and a minimum 2.3 GPA	Letter grade	Contact the professor to obtain approval to register, sign contract with regard to program requirements and register	No application, however, approval of the professor is required	LAW 7091 or 7176;* must have cumulative 2.3 GPA  *May be satisfied as a co-requisite with approval of the professor	Bankruptcy Assistance &amp; Practice Program  Professor B. Summer Chandler
Capital Defender Clinic	3	Two semesters	Second-year and third-year students with preference for third-years; and a minimum 2.3 GPA	S/U	Students email submit a letter of interest, resume, and transcript to the instructor	Contact Professor Joshua Moore	Take Evidence and Criminal Procedure or plan to enroll in both during the year	Capital Defender Clinic  Professor Joshua Moore
Civil Pre-Trial Litigation	3	One Semester (Fall 2016)	Must have completed Lawyering Advocacy; preference given to part-time students	Letter grade	Students get permission from the instructor prior to registering. Prior to registration, email Professor Curcio at acurcio@gsu.edu . Identify whether you are a full or part-time student and whether you have completed Lawyering Advocacy. Also state why you want to take the class	Students must get permission from the instructor prior to registering for this course	Lawyering Advocacy	Simulation course that develops students' pre-trial skills and business acumen with regard to civil tort cases. Students engage in advanced statutory interpretation, discovery planning, deposition-taking, and case planning and strategizing. Students also learn the law of liens and the impact health care and other liens have on decisions, including settlements and settlement documents and releases
Externship Program	3 plus 1 additional for mandatory Seminar starting fall 2015 for new externs	One semester with the exception of the U. S. Attorney's Office, which is a yearlong two-semester placement	Successful completion of all first-year classes; and a minimum 2.3 GPA	S/U New externs will receive a letter grade for the additional seminar	Online application process each semester; students must receive permission to register	Yes, contact Externship Office for more information	Students must satisfy any additional prerequisites specified by the individual externship site in the site description	Externship Program  Saundra Blalock , Externship Program administrative coordinator  Professors Kendall Kerew and Kinda Abdus-Saboor

Fundamentals of Law Practice	4	One semester (Spring 2017)	Successful completion of all first-year courses	Letter grade	Complete application . There is limited enrollment and you must receive permission to register	Yes, contact Professor Clark Cunningham	None	Course website  Professor: Clark Cunningham
Health Legislation and Advocacy I and II	6	Two semesters	Successful completion of all first-year courses	Letter grade	Regular registration and limited to eight students	No application; enrollment is through the regular registration process		Center for Law, Health &amp; Society  Professor Sylvia Caley (J.D. '89)
HeLP Legal Services Clinic I	4	One semester, with a possible second semester with faculty permission	Successful completion of all first-year courses and a minimum 2.3 GPA	Letter grade	Online application each semester; you must receive permission to register	Yes, application form . Applications are accepted for the fall in the previous spring, and for the spring in the previous fall. Contact clinic administrator Mariana Pannell		HeLP Clinic  Professors Sylvia Caley, Lisa Radtke Bliss, and James "Jimmy" Mitchell
HeLP Legal Services Clinic II	4	One semester	Successful completion of HeLP I	Letter grade	By application and permission of professors	Yes, application form . Applications are accepted for the fall during the previous spring, and for the spring in the previous fall. Contact Clinic Administrator Mariana Pannell		HeLP Clinic  Professors Sylvia Caley, Lisa Radtke Bliss, and James "Jimmy" Mitchell
Investor Advocacy Clinic	4	One semester required, with a possible second semester	Successful completion of all first-year courses and a minimum 2.3 GPA; third-year students are preferred	Letter grade	Online application each semester; you must receive permission to register	Yes, application form . Applications are accepted for the fall during the previous spring, and for the spring in the previous fall. Contact Clinic Administrator Mariana C. Pannell	Successful completion of all required courses	Investor Advocacy Clinic  Professor Nicole G. Iannarone

Landlord-Tenant Mediation Clinic	3	Fall and spring semesters	Successful completion of all first-year courses and a minimum 2.3 GPA	S/U	Online application process during spring semester prior to enrollment; students must receive permission to register	Yes, contact Professor Bonnie Powell (J.D. '99)	Clinic training will occur the first or second week of August. Attendance is mandatory. Training dates will be confirmed no later than June 1, each year. Upon acceptance, a criminal background check is conducted	Landlord-Tenant Mediation Clinic  Professor Bonnie Powell
Law and Health Equity	2 or 3	Fall semester	Must be a second-year or third-year student	Letter grade	Register and then sign contract with regard to program requirements	No application; enrollment is through the regular registration process	NA	Law and Health Equity is an introduction to understanding socioeconomic causes of chronic illnesses in low-income and minority communities and emphasizes the need for legal interventions to such afflictions. Students analyze the applicability of current laws, policies and regulations in creating safe and healthy neighborhoods for vulnerable populations. Students work with Neighborhood Planning Units (NPU) as community partners to assess the impact of and provide recommendations for the mitigation of health disparities in underserved communities in the Atlanta area.  Professor Courtney Anderson

Olmstead Disability Rights Clinic	3	Fall and spring semesters	Successful completion of all first-year courses and a minimum 2.3 GPA	S/U	Online application process during spring semester; students must receive permission to register	Yes, contact Professor Talley Wells at twells@atlantalegalaid.org	NA	The yearlong Olmstead Disability Rights Clinic is taught in partnership with the Atlanta Legal Aid Society's Disability Integration Project. The clinic focuses on advocacy arising out of the U.S. Supreme Court's Olmstead decision. The clinic will include (1) developing advocacy and litigation skills; (2) substantive law relating to the rights of people with disabilities; and (3) current Georgia issues. Students will represent individual clients in Olmstead-related advocacy and perform community education. Learn more about Olmstead at www.OlmsteadRights.org  Professor Talley Wells
Philip C. Cook Low-Income Taxpayer Clinic	4	One semester required, with a possible second semester	Successful completion of necessary prerequisite LAW 7095 and a minimum 2.3 GPA	Letter grade	Register for the tax clinic through the regular registration process	Yes, Application form . Note: There is no application for the summer semester. Summer enrollment is through the regular registration process	Successfully complete LAW 7095 Basic Federal Taxation	Philip C. Cook Low Income Taxpayer Clinic  Professor Ted Afield
Summer IP Program in Washington, D.C.	4	Summer semester only	Successful completion of all first-year courses and a minimum 2.3 GPA	S/U	Online application process during spring semester; students must receive permission to register	Yes, contact the Externship Office	Students also must satisfy any additional prerequisites specified by the U.S.P.T.O. or U.S. Copyright Office	Summer IP Program in Washington, D.C.  Professor Kendall Kerew

Transactional Assistance and Practice Program (TAPP)	3	One semester	Successful completion of all first-year courses and a minimum 2.3 GPA	Letter grade	Contact the professor to obtain approval to register, sign contract with regard to program requirements and register	No application, however, approval of the professor is required	LAW 7101;* must have a cumulative 2.3 GPA  *May be satisfied as a co-requisite with approval of the professor	Transactional Assistance &amp; Practice Program  Professor B. Summer Chandler
Urban Fellows Program	2	Fall and spring semesters	Second-year and third-year students, including part-timers	Letter grade	Apply in the spring (usually late February). Attend all the Urban Fellows lectures are during the fall semester. The paper satisfies the college's writing requirement	Yes, contact Karen Johnston (J.D. '08) , assistant director for the Center for the Comparative Study of Metropolitan Growth	Successful completion of your first year. Part-time students may apply after their first year	Center for the Comparative Study of Metropolitan Growth Assistant Director Karen Johnston (J.D. '08)