

Register for these courses through your school's normal registration process.

Synchronous Online Courses. Live. Interactive. Like SKYPE, but better.

"The professor and support people were always available to answer any of my questions. I would definitely recommend that my school continue to offer this course." - Student, Fall 2015

Summer Courses

Monday-Thursday, May 31-July 11, 2016

Exams July 15-17, 2016

Professional Responsibility

John Dzienkowski (University of Texas)

3 credits

8:30 - 10:00 PM EDT

Join live, interactive classes in Blackboard Collaborate
Professor and students log in at the same time
Converse in discussion forums and access course materials such as video & PowerPoints

Engaged Asynchronous Online Summer Courses May 31-July 11, 2016 (Exams July 15-17, 2016)

The most flexible and preferred online course format among students.

Personal Income Tax

Beverly Moran (Vanderbilt University)

3 credits

"Excellent teaching really created a rich learning environment in the online class. Being able to go back and review the recordings of class sessions really helped me study during the semester and prior to the exam." - Student, Fall 2015

"Great class. Great professor. Great support." - Student, Fall 2015

"2 thumbs up!" - Student, Summer 2015

Streaming chat messages | Discussion forums
24/7 IT support | Office hours via webcam or microphone
Comprehensive orientation

Log into the course through your school's website | Watch video lectures weekly on your own schedule
Join your classmates and your professor in lively discussion forums | Utilize live, online office hours with your professor
Get feedback on class assignments | Final exams are conducted online and with your school's exam policy